

Summer Poem

I had a lovely time today
soaking up the summer sun.
I wanted to write a special poem
about sunny day fun!

I dream I'm on a sunny beach,
building castles in the sand.
I have my special notebook
and my pencil in my hand!

There's so much I love about Summer,
it's not hard to say why.
I love to feel the sun shine on me,
from high up in the bright blue sky.

There's one thing about Summer,
you really cannot beat.
That's the taste of cool ice cream,
melting in the heat!

I wrote a summer poem
especially for you.
Now you've heard my rhyming words,
you can have a go too!
By Bearemy

