

Hello Everyone!

It's Bearemy here. I thought while I am staying at Mrs Ainslie's house (she put me in the washing machine, it was great fun!) I could write to you all to let you know what I am up to, and you can write back if you like!

This weekend I have been very busy. First, I went with Mrs Ainslie to deliver some useful goodies and Mother's Day gifts to her Mummy and Grandma, we left them on the doorstep.

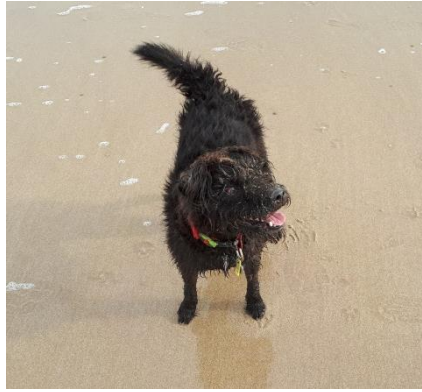

Then, I had a fashion show with the new outfit Mr Ainslie got me while he did our food shopping. Mrs Ainslie was surprised to find some shoes in my bag and says thank you to whoever has lent them to me for now!

Then, I went with Mr and Mrs Ainslie to drop off some useful goodies for Mr Ainslie's grandparents too. They live in a village near the seaside, it even has a castle! Do you recognise it? Maybe you could use a computer or a book to find out where we went.

We went for a walk on the beach with Mr Ainslie's Mummy's dog, Willow. I was glad Mrs Ainslie was giving me a piggy back, so that Willow didn't eat me! We waved to other Superheroes, so we could say hello without being too close.

On Sunday I was tired after all that exercise and fresh air, so I had a PJ day and read back through my diary, remembering all the lovely times I have had with you all. I will miss you reading stories to me at school and taking me to stay at your houses, but I can't wait to see what you are up to while you are being Stay At Home Superheroes! If you would like, you can write a letter or draw a picture for me and email a photo to Mrs Ainslie.

Lots of Love,
Bearemy
